Business Press celebrates 10th anniversary of HealthCare Heroes

The Fort Worth Business Press will celebrate the 10th anniversary of its Health Care Heroes event this year on March 7. Sponsored by HealthPoint, the Health Care Heroes event started as a way to honor professionals in the health care field in the North Texas area. Today the event also includes volunteers, researchers, and nonprofit groups involved in health care.

The 2012 Health Care Heroes are:

- Sue Austin, Cuisine for Healing
- Karen Albritton, Cook Children's
- Jerry L. Barker Jr., Texas Oncology
- Jeff Beeson, MedStar Emergency Medical Services
- Sheree Bennett, Baylor All Saints Medical Center
- Mark DeHaven, UNT Health Science Center
- Laura Friend, Cook Children’s
- Donna Grace, Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital Southlake
- Janell Hollister, volunteer, The Center for Cancer & Blood Disorders
- Jan Jowitt, UNT Health Science Center
- Steve Martin, Alcon
- Lorrie Normand, Plaza Medical Center of Fort Worth
- Lisa Smith, Methodist Mansfield Medical Center
- Diane Snow, University of Texas at Arlington College of Nursing
Like

Add New Comment

Real-time updating is enabled. (Pause)

Showing 0 comments

Team of Principals Fitness Challenge, Mansfield ISD, Methodist Mansfield Medical Center

Ketan Trivedi, Methodist Medical Center

In addition to the Health Care Heroes, there are several Milestone Award Winners this year:

Dick Ellis, Advocacy in Medicine Award

Careity Foundation, Pink Award

Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine, Heroes Health Care Award

Randall Canedy, Volunteer of the Year

Carl E. Everett, Lifetime Achievement Award

J.C. Chiao, Research in Medicine Award

The awards dinner will be March 7 at the Fort Worth Club. Call 817-336-8300 ext. 120 for information.