1. Coffee consumption lowers risk of colorectal cancer.

2. Researchers at Uof have discovered how to dull or completely remove pain without medicines by stimulating brains.

3. Study confirms link between diabetes drug (sulfonylurea) and increased risk of bladder cancer; however no increased risk was seen for a similar drug (meglitinides).

4. Longer maternity leave linked to better infant health. Each additional month of paid leave is linked to a 13 percent decline in infant mortality.

5. Direct link between Zika virus and microcephaly found.